

Family Talk – Conviction

READ TOGETHER

Acts 21, 22

1. Paul knew, from the prophecy of Agabus, that imprisonment was impending if he continued to Jerusalem. So, how was he able to boldly move forward when most would shy away? (see Acts 21:10-14)
2. Have you ever had someone falsely accuse you of something? How did you feel?
3. Paul used this time of persecution to share the Good News. How can we share Jesus in the face of adversity?

LIVE IT

Paul was a great missionary who faced tremendous persecution and opposition. The message of the resurrected Jesus wasn't popular with many he met, yet he persevered. Likewise, our faith may not be popular today, but we endure for the sake of Jesus and His Kingdom.

How does God want to use your faith story? While imprisoned, Paul shared the life-changing story of his encounter with Jesus with a hostile crowd. Who in your life needs to hear about the transforming power of Jesus? Pray as a family for opportunities to share and the courage to do so boldly!

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Help me to honor You even in the face of opposition. Grant me strength and courage to speak on Your behalf even when my enemies may not want to hear it. Help me do this in a humble manner that's honoring to You.

In Jesus name,
Amen.
