2 Corinthians 6:3–7:1

We live in such a way that no one will stumble because of us, and no one will find fault with our ministry. In everything we do, we show that we are true ministers of God.

2 Corinthians 6:3-4a (NLT)

Through His love for each of us, God calls us to live a life that's different. Some may even say it's peculiar. But, because Jesus did, we should too.

1. He sacrificed His life, so how can we?
2. He healed others, so how will we?
3. He fed others, so where will we?
4. He lived differently. Can we?

LIVE IT

After three years living with Jesus, the disciples began their ministries to reach others for Christ. They had a chance to share His mistakes through the writing we find in the Gospels and other books of the Bible, but they didn't. Why?

He had no faults.

As believers, we aren't perfect, but we can live a life that resembles Christ so that in everything we do, we show we're true ministers of God.

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Help me grow closer to being like you each day.

In Jesus Name,
Amen
