

Family Talk—A God-Centered Life

READ TOGETHER

Exodus 3:1-15

1. What stands out to you and your family from this passage?
2. Have you ever felt incapable of completing a task?

LIVE IT

Sometimes we forget just how powerful God really is, and yet He still cares so deeply for each of us. God wants to talk to us and He'll do it in all kinds of ways—a burning bush, a donkey (see Numbers 22:28), another person, in our quiet time, or through nature. He's always there offering His resources to us just like He did with Moses.

The question is, do we treat Him casually or more like the all-powerful King He really is? To have a relationship with God and not be overwhelmed by His greatness, start by thanking Him. Since God is the creator of everything, there's never a shortage of things to thank Him for.

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Thank You so much for EVERYTHING. You created the heavens and the earth and still want to have a relationship with us. Please help us live for You and lead us to what You have planned. We love You.

Amen.
