Daniel 1:8a (NLT)

But Daniel was determined not to defile himself by eating the food and wine given to them by the king...

1. Who are you pleasing?
2. Are you honoring God through your actions?

LIVE IT

Daniel did not compromise his faith to gain the king's approval. This week a friend called me to pray for him because His boss asked him to lie. This request was destroying my friend because he knew God would know. We prayed, fearful that if he didn't tell the lies, he may lose his job. We prayed that God would provide another way and give him favor with his boss.

My friend told the truth, and he told his boss he wouldn't tell lies. He showed his boss a better way to win business, by telling the truth. Not only did they win the job, the customer made it clear he appreciated their honesty.

Would you please your boss by saying and doing whatever they request? Where is God asking you to trust Him and not conform to the world? Do you stop and think about how your actions will affect others?

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Help me to be so in love with You that I do all things right in Your eyes. Please give me favor that will change the people around me to also do what's right.

In Jesus Name,

Amen.
